A Little bit of History

We'd like to share a little of the history of Tony's Italian Beef. First and foremost, it is a family run business, and we at Tony's Italian Beef are proud of being a member of Chicago's Southside community since 1975. ■ When the doors first opened only family members were employed, they included Grandpa Tony, Tony, Sister Theresa, Brother John, brother-in-law Johnny "D" and Uncle Benny. Tony's three sons joined the staff as soon as they could see over the counter. ■ Tony developed the recipe for the beef and Grandpa created his giardiniera. They spent hours perfecting these signature mainstays of the restaurant. They also, chose only the finest beef, sausage, hot dogs and potatoes for the fries, determining that only quality items would find their way to the menu. ■ Within a couple of years, they had earned the reputation of the "best beef in town". When customers moved out of state they demanded that when their relatives visited "they must bring Tony's beef by the pound" with them. ■ Due to the large request for "beef by the pound", they began a "catering" service. We also, began expanding the menu to include new items such as mouth watering Sicilian steak, breaded steak and several chicken sandwiches. You can even find a tasty breakfast sandwich in the morning. ■ Tony's Italian Beef is committed to serving the Chicago land area with great service and excellent food. We also, look forward to having you as lifelong customers.

So go ahead and ask yourself,

When was the last time you had a really great sandwich?
